FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874. STATE NEWS.

A seven inch snow in Rutherfordton last week. The Goldsboro Messenger office is soon to be provided with a new power The Hillsboro Recorder will here-after publish weekly letters from Mr. James Barren Hope, of Norfolk, Va.

Mr. F. N. Strudwick, of Hillsboro, is to be urged for nomination as Solicitor for the Seventh Judicial Dis-

The Wadesboro Herald says: There was shipt ed from the Wadesboro depot during the month of September 310 bales of cotton; October, 365 bales; November, 470 bales and December 1,425 bales, making a total of 2,570 bales for the four months.

Appleton Oaksmith, of Midland Railroad fame, the great London financier, is in Newbern. One of his vessels, a large British bark, is anchored at Morehead City, loaded with from Liverpool and will in a few days return direct.

The Raleigh Sentinel says : Mr. R. O. Briant, formerly of Person but new of Wake, raised cotton last year but says he can do better on tobacco. He reports that Dick Trice, a colored man els of corn with a bull yearling.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: On Friday of last week Emily Smith, col., residing in Greene county, near the Wayne line, was delivered by Drs. Patt Exum and John Harvey, of a child having two well developed heads, four arms, three legs, but only one body. All efforts on the part of the two physicians to save the child alive

The Washington Express says: Miss Mary Howard, daughter of Capt. Geo. Howard, residing about three miles from town, met with an accident a few days since which came near being very serions; she was riding, and the horse becoming frightened, she was thrown from the buggy, breaking out some of better than mising fine dogs for nothour friend M. A. Angier, Esq., a lib-ence of liquor, had a misunderstand. House, would now be well. Bradburn sur- ed 5, discharged 20. rendered himself to the authorities, and was bound ever on the charge of Mrs. Fry Where and How She is and then the condition of the house General Quesada, the Cuban leader.

you know you sent me to P.'s for glass health. Much warm sympathy has feature.—Washington Telegram.

Sketch of "Cumming's Battery." We find the following sketch of this section, serving faithfully throughout the entire war, in the last number was written by Captain Cumming him-

This company was organized in Wil-cember 12th, ordered to Fort Fisher. chored at Morehead City, loaded with February 28th, 1862, Captain truth, and nothing but the truth, and naval stores. The bark came direct Hedrick having been promoted to that you will love, honor, cherish and in Orange, three years ago raised two company was then tendered to the sleigh and proceeded to compound a and a half bales of cotton and 40 bush. Governor as a Light Artillery com- punch, of which the whole party drank Richmond, will never forget her ardent handed his charming wife into his car- heat she applies it to her eyelashes, from the buggy, breaking out some of hied Gen. D. H. Hill on his expediher teeth, and otherwise injuring her, tion to Washington; assisted by a went to the saloen close by and took The Greensboro Patriot says: Cur frierd Eugene Morehead left last frierd Eugene Morehead left last Thursday for Savannah, where he marries to-day one of Georgia's brightest day one of Georgia's brights est daughters. If he gets as good a wife as she does a husband, a couple of relations of the public of the they will reach here sometime about the plant they will be the first they went they will be presented to any medicine for same discovery. The 26th, we will be the first they went they will be presented to any medicine for same discovery. The Washington Express says: On Bermuda Hundreds, being present at bride get up and come down. But she Sunday afternoon, December 2sth, a Ware Bottom Church. After Butler had locked the door and would not let party of boys assembled on the breast- was "bottled up." secupied the the crowd in. Some of them got a in fact, it was the jet day of the Em- about one hundred and fifty denotes works that surround the town to entrenches at Clay's faral-house, being bammer and nails, and getting a ladgage in sport of some kind in which engaged with the enemy's batteries der, put it upon the ontside of the gage in sport of some kind in which engaged with the enemy's batteries der, put it upon the outside of the pistols were used, when a pistol in the bands of Wm. Randall was accident- incident occurred: Under a heavy fire ment, and nailed up the door firmly, ally discharged, the ball taking effect from the enemy a 32-pound shell saying that if the bridgeroom would in the brain of John Easters, a had from the enemy's gun fell among a de- not let them put him to bed he should a not let them put him to be no about 15 years of age. It entered just tachment of the men, serving a piece not get into the room anyhow. They above the left eye and penetrated the of artillery. Private Jas. P. Pierce, hid the ladder and went off. The brain. Strange to say, he is still hy-ing, and doing well, under the skillful op the shell with its burning face and od quietly to his room and attempted trentograf of Drs. Bloust and MeD and day, Gen. Beauregard, in General Or-should, "My dear, open the door!"

ing, as many colored and even some Were shortly moved to that part of other barn, and down the newly marwhite men do. Besides the $38.25, the lines crossing the Norfolk railroad, ried and hastened. He secured a and were engaged on the premorable ladder, and at half-past five in the and Brandburn, while under the influ- terrible retreat to Appoint to X Court and the Wadesbore depot, fell from it

ing, which led to blows. Brandburn | During this time, the second section, cating his neck, and killing him inwas knocked down, and while in the under Lieutenant Rowe, remained at stantly. He had been a soldier in the set of being stamped, caught Medlock Kinston. On the 8th of March, 1865, Confederate army, and in one of the by the foot and pulled him down. As Medlock fell, Bradburn indicted a cut and the battle near Kinston was ness lost his right leg. At the time working girl, and live equally pure to the treasury to draw the money, Mr. When the curtain fell upon the first lives, and in the major number of cases Cushing and Gen. Butler were on hand Medlock fell, Bradburn inflicted a cut and the battle near Kinston was ness lost his right leg. At the time parties were men of respectability, had numbered 128 men-79 being from been warm personal friends up to the New Hanover, 16 from Brunswick, 21 moment of the unfortunate occurrence, and Columbus and 22 scattering. that night, and a verdict was rendered but for the effects of drink all Killed, wounded and died 21, capture that the deceased came to his death by

The Hillsboro' Recorder says: A | A correspondent of the St. Louis worthy Divine, not a thousand miles Globe waited upon Mrs. Fry, at her Republican Congressmenthat it will be out of the box, bearing the bracelet to see such artistic dancers as Bonfan- to the cashier's office, the money was from Raleigh, in the course of his residence in New Orleans, a few days very impolitic for the Administration that a million of frances could not it, Sengalli, Solkhee, Lupo, Adrienne, duly counted, receipted and delivered. frequent ministrations for charity, fell since, for the purpose of consulting to sustain the Republicans of Texas in purchase. in with an individual upon whom the her wishes and views concerning the their efforts to nullify the result of the weight of adversity seemed to press St. Louis suscription. The widow of late election in that State, more espewith peculiar severity. To his dilapi- the Cuban martyr lives in half of an | cially as they recognized its validity dated personal c ndition, squalid and unpreter tions single story framed cotragged, were added the discomforts of tage, standing back in a little garden, ic majority in the State is overwhelmand still, with well-bred politeness, to the extent that Bonfanti has, and was paid. I have heard that General a house through whose broken doors opposite one of the public markets, in and shattered windows the blasts of a thickly populated part of the city. Word here that they are resolved to inwinter rushed without a check, alto- The room into which the correspon- stall in their offices, those who were jewels. The imperial party rose and erage ballet girl is by no means the He said that they did not come before gether making a powerful appeal to the tender sensibilities of the worthy ly furnished, and the matted floor was whelming Federal interference. Mr. returned. Then the Dake, with a ter-Some relief was given to the imme- piece was a very excellent portrait of Davis what he did for Kellogg, but if diate physical wants of the sufferer, poor Fry and a companion picture of the President follows his counsel again was noticed. "Why in the world Mrs. Fry received with marked emo- of the large majority of his supporters. don't you have your windows glazed, tion the intell gence of what the citizens The Attorney-General, however, stated and your doors mended?" asked the of St. Louis were doing, and in reply to day in conversation that he had Rector. "No money, no money; noth- said that had she only herself to think given nothing like a positive assurance ing to pay with." Now the Rector of she would ask nothing but to be to any one of what action he would rewas an almoner of a fund, the weekly left alone with her grief, but for her commend in the Texas matter. He contributors of his church, but the children's sake she would gratefully said that he had had some conversation repairs of houses did not seem to accept the relief proposed, and in do- on the subject, but not beyond that. come within the scope of his powers. ing this she felt she was only acting as When the subject came before him "Well, well; I'll have it done myself; her poor husband would have wished officially he would give his opinion.go to P's drug store, get glass and her to do. Caprain Fry leaves seven and fix your windows:"

This was done. Some weeks after, the Rector met the object of his charity on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay me for that job." "What job? What do you mean?" "Oh you know you sent me to P.'s for glass

The impression is that the civility on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay me for that job." "What job? What do you mean?" "Oh you know! Don't and refinement, and is in delicate you know you sent me to P.'s for glass

This was done. Some weeks after, the impression is that the civility on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay me for that job." "What job? What do you mean?" "Oh you know! Don't and refinement, and is in delicate you know you sent me to P.'s for glass

The impression is that the civility on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay me for that job." "What job? What do you mean?" "Oh you know! Don't head of ber skirls, and, g ving two or leader to runings, who are engaged in white arcovery of her bracelet at home.

The impression is that the civility on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay to prove her dead and turning bracelet at home.

The impression is that the civility on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay the provisions of the charter, the bracelet at home.

The great clock had just folled the it is inside out, and either hangs it upity is done, she removes her dress by taking it off over her dand turning it inside out, and either hangs it upity on the street. The latter addressed him, "Doctor, I want you to pay the provisions of the committee, will be modified by over the beat of the Duchess over the bell of the Duches, hour of 6 when the bell of the Duches, hour of 6 when the bell of the Duches, which are the committee, with a pay to provide the provisions. It is understood that the provisions of the Civil the bracelet at home.

We are told, says the Augusta of the policy was understood tha

Cumming's Battery, which was raised in The Height to which Marriage Fer-Last night a party drove up, assemof Cur Living and Our Dead. The bled in the parlor of the hotel, and sent dates are all authentic, as the sketch for the landlord. They had come in to education at home, the choice lies word, unlocked her casket and placed from the prairie and were in search of ermore. I was invited to witness the Information concerning the standing madame retired once more—this time necessary adjuncts to her wardrobe, mington, February 18th, 1861, by Ceremony, and ascending to the parlor and character of these latter is readily to sleep and to dream of her precious diamonds. When the bell tolled the hour of 9 the Russian ambassador, be supposed, all one piece, but merely been Line blocks at which are not, as might be supposed, all one piece, but merely the standing th Fear Light Artillery." When Lin- blushing damsel of sweet 16, waiting ing-school, north of the Potomac, a haggard and disordered, entered his long trunks, such as men wear to bathe coln's call for troops was made, on the impatiently the arrival of the parson. 15th day of April, 1861, this company. For some reason no preacher could be with others proceeded to the mouth of found, and they were obliged to fall the Cape Fear river and seized Fort back at last upon a very young fellow, Johnson. April 23rd, was ordered to a newly elected Justice of the Peace, attention to the peculiar advantages of "Satan!" exclaimed the Duke, Fort Caswell. June 17th, was muster- who had never before officiated at a the Southern Home School, in Baltican learn nothing of them." ed into the Confederate States service ceremony of this kind. He was very more. This institution we know to be "What!" shricked the medame, with the following officers: Jno. J. Hedrick, Captain; Jas. M. Stevenson and Jas. D. Cumming, 1st Lieutenants, and J. B. Huggins, 2d Lieutenants, and J. B. Huggins, 2d Lieutenants. and Jas. D. Cumming, 1st Lieucers and 1st. B. Huggins, 2d Lieutenants, and J. B. Huggins, 2d Lieutenant.

Remained at Fort Caswell until July, employed a great part of the time in mounting heavy guns and assisting in placing the fort, in a state of defence.

In a copy of "Every Man his Own of experience as educators; and their day years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had more than tearly years of experience as educators; and their day, nave had their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and their day, nave had their day, nave had their day, nave had their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and their had their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and their had their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and their had their day, nave had the indicator of experience as educators; and the indicator had their day, nave placing the fort in a state of defence. he pronounced the following charge: July, was ordered to Zeke's Island, to "You, and each of you, do solemnly man a battery of sea-coast guns. De- swear that in the case now upon hearing you will tell the truth, the whole Hedrick having been promoted to Major of Artillery and Lieut. Stevenson to Captain of Heavy Artillery, the son to Captain of Heavy Artillery, the your natural lives, so help you God." company enlisted for the war, and was re-organized with J. D. Cumming, Then the justice charged them a del-Captain; J. W. Galloway, and lar each, and pronout sed them such James M. Rowe, 1st Lieutenants, and and wife. One of the friends then S. H. Everitt, 2d Lieutenant. The produced a jug of whiskey from their only their lips can tell. Those who made him a poorer man by many milpany, was accepted and ordered to Wilmington for instruction and equipment. Remained in vicinity of Wilmington until the Fall and being in downs. At last the party concluded good shape for the field, was ordered to put the happy couple to bed. The to Tarboro, reporting to Gen. Martie, bride was willing to go, because she do, But the recollection of these Nov. 13th, 1862, and immediately took said she was tired and her shoes up the line of march for Greenville, pinched her feet. The girls of the which place the enemy had frequently | party took her off to her chumber, and | of the Souther people. Admirably or | said that it is one of the most complete visited. From that time until Decem- soon announced to the bridegroom ber 15th, were marching and counter- that everything was ready. The young marching with 61st N. C. regiment and fellows then intimated to the bridea company of Georgia cavalry, through groom that they proposed to divest the counties of Pitt, Greene, Beaufort him of his wearing apparel. He ob- cipline of the School with the watchful be found representatives of the and Wayne, reaching Goldsboro after the battle at that place. Marched The bridegroom was as strong as an thence to Weldon, arriving December ox, and getting angry he blackened 29th, 1862. Moved to Kinston, Janu one fellow's eye, and tore another one's ary 26th, 1863. March 28th, accompa- coat off his back. In the turmoil the ordered to Pet isburg, Va., and the could not get him up stairs, they went 17th of May joined Beauregard at up to see if they could not make the

Mr. Thomas J. Lockhart, the Coro-

The Texas Question.

he will do it in opposition to the views

Washington Telegram.

the fall from the trestle.

and the clear and well-balanced mind which she applied to the execution of things is only the least of the claims of her Academy to the consideration

a distance of twenty-seven feet, dislo- royalty in vain had long sought to girls of this or my other city in their ame Atoche lives with Mrs. Ammon. purchase. A hum of admiration ran general deportment. It is the smaller | Pefore Congress adjourned last Medick fell, Bradbarn inflicted a cut with his pocket knife in the eye of his adversary, which was at first regarded as a slight wound, but in less than an hour crystpelas set in, from the effects of which Medick died instantly. The then entered the box.

> ner, held an inquest over the budy lets and was dumb with admiration; of dash in their bearing that is too of- could draw the money. That especial would Milady be so gracious as to alten misconstructed. the dislocation of his neck, caused by It is the general opinion among the livery was one of the daring thieves attained that degree of perfection we lars, and Mr. Cushing and Gen. Butler who infested the capital. He bade his close by adding the truthful descriptore minus about that amount, coachman drive to the office of prefect tion of some unknown Peeping Tom. of police, and ere daylight a hundred After carefully removing her bonnet of the shrewdest officers were search- and shawl, or sack, or whatever she ing Paris for the gems. The Duke, wears, and placing them on the shelf, filled with anxiety, remained at the she proceeds to unbutton her dress; by non-compliance of the Company office for tidings, while the Duchess this done, she removes her dress by with the terms of the charter, the not a thief, and that the bracelet in while taking off her shoes and stock-This is the season of the year when, his possession had been in his family in many a cosy family circle, the dis- for many years. Would madame inposition to be made of some fair maid- trust to him the mate to the missing that the "half-hour" and "fifteen min-

For those who prefer a boarding-school Madame the Dutchess, without a orchestra will be rung in. that we may be doing a substantial opened her eyes, and with a smile of sits down and leisurely ruts on her service to many a household, in calling delight asked for the bracelets.

out the South. Her husband, the gal- And then, with a groun, the duke stage, but after being dressed) to her lant Major-General John W. Pegram, dropped into a seat.
of Virginia, it will be remembered, fell "I see it all," said he; "the raseals perfluous bits of the whiting, she ap-the persecution and dangers to which | And so it proved. The bracelets | Count Johannes. After Miss Flora her devotion and that of her brothers were never returned, and the Russian black cosmetic, and heating a hairp n exposed the members of her family ambassador recalls the last fetc day of who, perforce, remained in Baltimore, the fallen Emperor with a sigh, for it in the gas, runs it into the black comknew Mrs. Pegram during the war, in lions of francs than he was when he patrotism, her assiduous care in nurs- riage and bade his coachman drive to both upper and lower ; this, together ing the sick and wounded Confederates, the opera.

THE BALLET. whatever work her fair hands found to Peoping-Tosn in Miss Flora's Dress-

Of our local ballet, it can be truly ganized, and conducted with the view and extensive organizations before the of developing the highest moral and public. It numbers about two huninterlectual qualities of the pupils, it dred, including coryphees, dancing combines at once the wholesome dis- and extra ballet, and in its ranks can care and abounding comforts of Home. | English, French, Spanish, German, Thoroughness is the marked character- Irish, Scotch, Welsh and Danish istic of the system of instruction .- | nationalties. There are comparatively Whatever the pupils learn, they learn but few, if any, native American girls well; and there is nothing of that sa- to be found, while the German eleperficiality about their attainments ment largely preponderates. The that is too often to be observed in the French and Spanish are the most average boading-school girl. While graceful and fairy-like in their move-the empire. Never was Paris so gay; they came to this c unity There or Period.

ever. Alt Paris knew that he would Caroline, Gabrielle, Clothilde Panie grace the opera that night and add to Carrie, and Eugenie, who are styled as if she didn't know there were such all that portion of Paris who had the The remainder are at the Grand Op to necessary number of frames went to House in "Humpty Danada," and the opera, and, in honor of so great an distributed among the various variety ourwitted by a Women and Her Front St., between CHESTNUT AND through the house, and then for the classes who bring disrepute upon the March, the Atoche claim was allowed, first time the enchanting strains of the ballet. They are much better paidthan but when Mr. Jannin, her lawyer, went low the Empress to make a personal Mesars, Jarrett & tain a have cull- The first persons who entered the treasexamination of one of the bracelets?" ed from the European cities the most vry on that important day were Mad-In an instant the fair arm was shorn accomplished premieres dansenses to ame Atoche and her lawyer, who proof its gems, and with a smothered be found, and since the original pro- ceeded to the auditor's effice, where all ejaculation of delight the man wear-ing the imperial livery bowed himself eity they have enabled our play-goers. This was quickly done, and proceeding FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES. Setti and Pitteri, as well as Giavassi The parties left rejoicing. Two hours The curtain fell upon the third act, and Boni, all dancers highly esteemed later, Mr. Cushing and Gen. Butler notes of the finale rolled through the house, the curtain fell for the last time; and admiration of the public consternation when told that the money is a superson of the state of the same of the state of the same of the s departed, and yet the bracelet was not fascinating b suty off the stage that 11 o'clock because he thought that, even pany's stresser, solvener and success. spotlessly clean. Over the chimney piece was a very excellent portrait of Davis what he did for Kellogg, but if drove rapidly to the Tuileries and degraceful attitude, with a radiant smile papers. The question is, who was the manded the return of the diamonds. on her face. Indeed, the work and friend that hinted to the auditor that Explanations followed, and the Duke time devoted to reaching this state of it would be well to be prepared to rewas at last couvinced that the Empress leveliness cannot be estimated by the ceive Madame Atoche as soon as the had never sent for the bracelet, and uninitiated, and for the benefit of office opened for business? Mr. Janthat the man wearing the imperial those who are carrious to learn how she nin gets a fee of thirty thousand doliugs she desires to know if the "halfhour" has been called. Being told en fast growing up to womanhood, is bracelet, that the identity might be utes" have both been called, she asks to be informed how long before the

Her shoes and stockings being off between the schools in the North and in the hands of the trusty officer the by this time, she reaches over to where an official to tie the knot that should the excellant educational institutions second bracelet. The officer, with a her tights have been hanging since make them one and inseparable forev- which are found in the Southern States. | profound bow, left the apartment, and | the night previous, and securing those

> Southern girl may properly, safely and wife's apartments and threw himself in, having been pulled up and fasten-profitably be sent. We feel, therefore, in despair into a chair. Madame ed loosely for the nonce, Miss Flora This done, she divests herself of the > long white ruffed and embroidered garment before mentioned, and putting in battle near Petersburg, at the me-ment when his cup of happiness was let. There was no messenger sent for (Flora uses Dauran's No. 18), and if heres to the bairpin is soft with the with a little black line at the extreme outside corner of the eve, enables the lovely Flora to assume that melting, voluptuous expression which is admired, and, at the same time, gives her eyes a larger appearance than nature intended. The "make-up" being complete, then comes what Paul calls a glory to a wo-man, her long hair. This has been carefully combed and brushed, and is now, with great care, so as not to disarrange its curls or crimps, placed by the fair Flora on her lovely head. The wig adjusted the great work in done. Being made-up, Flora now devotes all the plandits of the appreciative claque, occasion, Mons. Blautais, the director, balls of the city.

MUTLER EUCHRED.

was to produce "Let Phophete."

The salaries received by the New

The overture was ever; the Lin- York ballet will be seen to amount to A Washington letter writer says:— The Raicigli Scatine | say - Abra-ham Truman, co., raised the largest hog in Durham Township, weight 450 pormas, which was sold to Gray Be-for 8; cen's per pound. Thirty left for 8; cen's per per pound. Thirty left for 8; cen's per per pound. T were ordered back to Petersburg, or copying the works on the Jerusalem plank road, and were engaged in the plank road, and were engaged in the adder, but he could not do it. At actions of the 17th and 18th of June. Were shortly moved to that part of the lines cressing the Norfolk reibroad, ried out bastened. He secured a the secured a percentage of the secured as the secured a percentage of the secured as the secured a percentage of the secured as the secure were drawn aside, and revealed the of life and domestic qualities. Sufficient passes into the hands of the governand were engaged on the memorabic day of the mine explosion, July 30, the day of the mine explosion, July 30, the finite township.

The Raleigh News says: From a gentleman just from Caldwell county we learn the particulars of a very unspectation.

The Raleigh News says: The fortunate case of homicide which oc- much attention by its constant and set, a man by the name of Tim Leary, and was calmly and with well-bred prevailing weakness is the one insepa- to their children. Gen. Atoche has oursed in Alexander county, near the calculate firing. Upon the evacuation of Petersburg shared in all the hards gentlemen, by the names of Medlock ships and much of the fighting of that county and make attention by its constant of the large providing weakless is the one inseparation accurate firing. Upon the evacuation living at Stauback's Crossing, in Arbone has nonchalance glancing about the house; for upon her arms, blazing like bearing the trestle county, while walking the trestle county, while walking the trestle county are not by any means as ships and much of the fighting of that county which bad as they are painted, and will fa-Paris had heard so much, and which vorably compare with the working intimate friend of the President. Mad-posed. Their stage life and business was necessary to allow a certain length Her Majesay had noticed the brace- gives them easier manners and a kind of time to clapse before either party of time to clapse before either party could draw the money. That especial day occurred about two weeks ago.

The first persons who entered the treasury on that important day were Madame Atoche and her lawyer, who proceeded to the auditor's effice, where all the papers were ready to be signed.

Hen. Kemp P. Battle, Hon. John Manning, Hon. Wm. A. Smith, Col. Win. L. Sannders, J. C. McBae, Hen. Tod R. Cadwell, Gen'l W. B. Cox, B. V. McAden, J. B. Bat lielor, John Nichols, Col. T. M. Holt, C. Tate Murphy, J. J. Young, Walter Clark, Co'. W. E. Anderson, James A. Graham, W. G. Upchurch, Dr. W. J. J. Davis, John G. Williams, F. H. Cameron, J. J. Davis, John G. Williams, F. H. Cameron, J. J. Davis, John G. Williams, F. H. Cameron, J. J. Davis, John G. Williams, F. H. Cameron, J. Davis, John G. Wi

The Fredericksburg, Orange and Charlottesville Railroad has been taken possession of by the State of Virginia, the charter being forfeited band of her skirts, and, giving two or way companies, who are engaged in Mrs. Dety Moore's..... "Was the bracelet recovered?" and three jamps as the 19th dancing a mild persuading white and colored laborers Woodcock's Store. January 14th & 15th Walter Scott's novels are now sold for the rest of his days?" eagerly de-

Fall and Winter Boots and Shoes, Which we have PERSONALLY SELECTED from the BEST manufacturers in the Unite States.

Having purchased our stock during the present MONETARY PANIC We have been able to secure the Best Goods for the very lowest Prices And are prepare to give our customers the REDUCED PRICES. Our stock comprises all kinds of

Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, Buskins INDIA-RUBBERS. for Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses, Boys and Call-

POLE AGENTS FOR The Celebrated "Ransom" Boot -AND-"JOYCES" FAMOUS GAITERS

GOOD SHOES!

We also keep on hand Leather, Calf Skins and sh Finding. LEMEMBER

LOW PRICES! DUDLEY & ELLIS. Sign of the Big Boot. il Market Street, Wilmington, N. C.

Raleigh Female Sem!nary. BALEIGH, N. C.

. HORGOOD, A. M., Principal. W. REINHART, (W. Va.) Associate Principal.
Dr. L. VON MEYERHOFF, Music Depar The Spring term will open on Monday, Jan nary 19, 1871. Apply for Catalogue.

of Chronic and Acute Rheumatsm, Neuralga Lumbego, Scistica, Kidney, and Nervous Di her attention to her tights. First removing the little sack, and tucking in the little—what shall we call it—Hauberk—that the wears, she begins to pull up her tights so as not to leave a wrinkle in them; this she does by The Diamond Bracelets.

It was during the palmiest days of the United States, and have found almost constant of dength is medianted to dength

GREEN & FLANNER,

CASTON HOUSE. MULBERRY.

For Sale or Rent, for one or More Years.

A SOUND PLANTATION two miles east of the mouth of New River, in Onslow county, with less poor land on it than any slantation between Wilmington and Beaufort of the same

NORTH CAROLINA STATE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

RALEIGH, N. C. CAPITAL$200,000. .

It is emphatically a Hour Company. Its large capital guarantees strongth and

Its Rates are as low as those of any first class It offers all desirable forms of Insurance residence or travet.

Policles non-torfeitable after two years.
Its officers and Directors are prominent and well known North Carolinians, whose experience as business in-n, and whose worth and integrity are alone sufficient guarantees for the Con-

O. H. PERRY, Supervising Ag't. W. L. SMITH & CO., Agt's, Wilmington, N.C. DR. J. C. WAINER, Medical Examiner. 81: 25 250 d2w&w25 mosch

Goldsboro, N. C.

Specialist in Caucers, Tumors, Chronic Ulcers, Scrofula, Epilepsy, Female

Diseases, Liver Diseases, Skin Discases, and all kindred Affections WILL BE AT South Washington The Doctor passed on with some new ideas of the impudence of mendicate charity.

A Hundred Volumes have been written about the teeth, but one bottle o. Fragman the dealers say that his books are read now only by the humblest class of buyers.

Suppl. Inc means employed consist of extravagant promises of high wages arrayed in a single garment, which the dealers say that his books are read that the thief was taken, and upon his other high boot-tops, and hold the Duchess.

With a grave bow the officer stated that the was sketches almost to her high boot-tops, and high living with little work, fancy the dealers say that his books are read now only by the humblest class of broidered at the top.

Substitute the field was taken, and upon his other high boot-tops, and high living with little work, fancy the dealers say that his books are read now only by the humblest class of broidered at the top.

Substitute the field was taken, and upon his of the dealers say that his books are read now only by the humblest class of the feeling casier, she sits down and the field was taken.

Substitute the field was taken, and upon his of the dealers say that his books are read at the control of the dealers say that his books are read at the dealers say that his books are read that the bottom and employed consist of the same parties at the class of the fermion of the field was taken.

Substitute the field was taken, and upon his of the dealers say that his books are read at the control of the dealers say that his books are read the dealers say that his books are read to the dealers say that his books are read to the dealers say that his books are read to the dealers say that his books are read to the dealers say that his books are read to the dealers say that his books are read to